1 cm of textual records

Ruth Agnes Wright (fl. 1940-1965) was married to the painter Austin L. Wright. The couple lived in Prince Edward Island for many years, before moving to Mahone Bay and then Bridgewater, Nova Scotia. Austin Wright died in 1962.

Fonds consists of a series of deeds tracing the ownership of a tract of land in Mahone Bay that had previously formed part of the right of way of a wye track abandoned by the Halifax and South Western Railway Company in 1942.

The records were donated by Mike Anderson in 1995.
