

FONDS DESCRIPTION (MBMS-37)

James Adam Eisenhaur fonds

1894

2 pages of textual records

James Eisenhaur was a Lunenburg County fisherman apparently born at Mahone Bay in 1862. A resident of Oakland, Nova Scotia, he died in 1926.

Fonds consists of a single sheet (2 pages) relating to financial matters, specifically a loan to Eisenhaur for $300.00 and a claim against him for "bad making of the fish" of the schooner D. Crenan (Captain Lewis Strum).

The records were donated by Ruth Pegler of Victoria, BC in 2004.
