

FONDS DESCRIPTION (MBMS-47)

H. Gerald Stairs fonds

c. 1946

6 pages of textual records

Henry Gerald "Gerry" Stairs was born at Halifax in 1904. Following his graduation from Dalhousie University, he worked as a civil engineer. In 1929 he married Freda Winfield. During the Second World War, he served as a lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. A keen yachtsman, he operated for several years as a naval architect and yacht broker. For a time, his brokerage and yacht-building activities were based in Mahone Bay. Stairs later moved to Quebec. In 1962, he self-published The Stairs of Halifax. Stairs died at Montreal in 1964.

Fonds consists of an H.G. Stairs brochure and order form for the racing yacht Acadia '42.

The records (Acc. No. 08.002.01a, b) were found in the Mahone Bay Museum's backlog in 2018 and were processed in 2019.
