Burgoyne family fonds

[ca. 1890]-1969

8 cm of textual records

220 photographs

The son of James Albert Burgoyne and Emma Jane Shupe, Frederick Stannage Burgoyne was born at Oakland, Lunenburg County in 1880. In 1907, Burgoyne married Josephine Elizabeth Mader. The couple had two children, Robert De Wolf, born in 1908, and Enola Thelma, born in 1911. Frederick S. "Freddie" Burgoyne worked as a ship's carpenter, later becoming a foreman at the J. Ernst & Sons shipyard in Mahone Bay. He eventually opened his own yard, which he operated until his death in 1928. Josephine Elizabeth (Mader) Burgoyne died in 1951. After graduating from the Mahone Bay School in 1930, Enola "Nollie" Burgoyne studied at the Halifax Shorthand School and pursued a career as a stenographer. In 1936, she married Roscoe Earlen MacLeod. She died at Oakland in 2003. She was predeceased by her brother De Wolf, who died in 1978.

Fonds consists of correspondence, a legal agreement, school records, notebooks, certificates, and clippings relating primarily to the shipbuilding activities of Frederick Stannage Burgoyne during the 1923-1927 period and to his daughter Enola Burgoyne Macleod's education during the late 1920s and early 1930s. The photographs largely document members of the Burgoyne family, friends of Enola Burgoyne MacLeod and De Wolf Burgoyne, and some Burgoyne-related shipbuilding activities.

The records were apparently accumulated by Enola "Nollie" Burgoyne in her home at Oakland. They were subsequently acquired by the Mahone Bay Museum following her death in 2003, forming part of the museum's archival backlog. A small accrual was found in the Museum's backlog in 2018.
