John Alexander Andrews was born Feb 15, 1852 in Indian Point to Daniel Andrews and Eliza Zwicker. He was a farmer and married Catherine Rachel Ernst on Feb 26, 1880 in Mahone Bay. Before he died on March 29, 1911, he and Catherine had eleven children: Arthur Andrews (b. abt 1880); Lida Elizabeth Andrews (b. 13 Mar 1883 - d. 26 Jun 1979); John Alexander Andrews (b. 3 Aug 1885 in Indian Point- d. 15 Jun 1966 in Indian Point); Charles Edwin Andrews (b. 1887- d. 5 Jan 1908); James Kenneth Andrews (b. 13 Jun 1889 in Indian Point - d. 12 Jun 1973 in Indian Point); Annie Victoria Andrews (b. abt 1893); Samuel Benjamin Andrews (b. 8 Aug 1894 - d. 24 Aug 1927); Wilfred Arthur Andrews (b. 1 Jan 1897 in Indian Point - d. 24 Aug 1927); David Albert Andrews (b. 1 Dec 1900 in Oakland - d. 3 Dec 1982 in Indian Point); Glennie Bell Andrews (b. 18 Mar 1903 - d. 24 Dec 1998); Reginald Sharp Andrews (b. September 23, 1905 - d. 24 Aug 1927). Reginald, Samuel, and Wilfred were all lost at sea on the schooner Uda R. Corkum during the gale of 24 August 1927.

The fonds consists primarily of photographs, but does include some textual records, including birth, marriage, and baptismal certificates as well as land grant information and deed. Most of the fonds was apparently assembled by John Alexander Andrews, who seems to have collected photographs and documents over the years, particularly during the 1880-1910 period. Many of the photographs depict the various members of John and Catherine Andrews's large family. The fonds is arranged in ten series: Documents, Farming, Military, People: Identified - Andrews Family, People: Identified, People: Unidentified, School, Sports, Town Views, and Transportation.

The collection was donated by Bayview Pines Country Inn owner in 2019 and were given accession numbers 2019.6.1 - 2019.6.71
